Leadership: Promote a collaborative team
Technical: Culturally and linguistically competent training; health coverage program enrollment process training; research capacity for best practices.

1. Create a local alliance of resident leaders and organizations to advocate for the expansion of eligibility criteria for public health programs and the provision or increase of Medicaid and Healthy Families.

2. Establish a team of resource providers to educate, organize, and mobilize residents and other community stakeholders to support a unified policy to improve public health coverage for children.

3. Simplify the application and re-certification process for public health programs.

4. Enroll multiple entry points in the neighborhood, especially churches, hospitals, and schools, to help children and families enroll in and maintain public health coverage.

5. Advocate for employers to become effective entry points for private health coverage for children.

6. Create a purchasing cooperative that allows individuals, regardless of immigration status, and employers to obtain private health insurance at an affordable price.

7. Explore the feasibility of establishing and funding a Health Maintenance Organization (HMO) for children and families in Boyle Heights.

People/Organizations: Recognize the importance of culturally and linguistically competent training and support given to foster healthy, and non-polluting ways that gives preference to pedicab and pedestrians.

8. Increased amount of quality affordable housing to improve health and safety.

9. Decreased violence and abuse in the home.

10. Safe and positive school environments for students, families and school staff.

People/Organizations: Network of adults and youth (K/Expertise: Organizing adults and youth)\n
11. Increased number of children targeted for violence prevention initiatives.

12. Improved community norms that promote healthy eating, increased physical activity, and improved school facilities to support the health and wellness of residents.

13. Improved air quality via incremental reductions of air contaminants.

14. Improved city, school district, county and state partnerships to support the health and wellness of residents.

15. Improved mobility of residents in a safe, healthy, and non-polluting ways that provides preference to pedicab and bicycles.

16. Increased number of quality affordable housing to improve health and safety.

17. Increased access to employment in the medical industry and other high growth development.

18. Increased access to employment in the medical industry and other high growth development.

19. Increased number of quality affordable housing to improve health and safety.

Leadership: Community coalition to do a walk-through of neighborhoods; in collaboration among CHOs and universities Adapt: Address: Relationship with detention centers; schools and law enforcement research for best practices for alternative restorative judicial process. Management: Organizations to maintain and operate safe parks.

Technical: Culturally sensitive materials and workshops to address domestic violence; policy changes that affect women and youth training on school system/structure; community mapping of unsanitary and underserved areas.

20. Use community-level strategies to challenge and transform social and cultural norms that limit violence, as an acceptable or normative power.

21. Develop a multi-agency collaborative to provide services and supports to strengthen families and to prevent, stop, and help individuals heal from violence in the home.

22. Certify health and human services in schools so that families can access resources that help reduce stressors associated with violence.

23. Advocate policies that increase participation of students and parent on decisions on school discipline measures and broader school policies.

24. Build a cadre of youth and parents advocate for policies related to a safe environment in and around schools and a more positive relationship between the police and youth and community members.

25. Organize youth and families to reclaim and transform public spaces into non-violent and healthy environments.

26. Transform community norms to reduce alcohol sales.

27. Establish comprehensive re-entry policies and support system to help children and young people return to Healthy, and non-polluting ways that promotes community engagement.

Leadership: Community planning; working in systems advocacy; coalition of organizations; re-development projects; partnerships with local businesses; need to create vision and model.

Mnemonic: Non-profit groups to manage public space.

Technical: Translation and dissemination of culturally sensitive community organizing materials; mapping; work plans; legacy and designed pedestrian trails.

28. Establish a comprehensive Boyle Heights Community Benefits policy with City and County governments.

29. Establish a well coordinated transportation development system that provides adults and youth (especially at-risk youth) access to a career path to public health programs.

30. Advocate for policies that increase safety by increasing activities in parks, green spaces, gardens, and underutilized spaces and alleyways.

31. Advocate for an efficient, safe and affordable public transportation system that supports a pedestrian culture.

32. Transform alleys, sidewalks and streets into safe routes and recreation area for pedestrians and bicyclists.

33. Reform the City of Los Angeles Housing Departments (LAHD) inspection and code enforcement policies to improve health, safety and wellness.

34. Launch a community engagement on air quality in Los Angeles County.

35. Create a purchasing cooperative that allows individuals, regardless of immigration status, and employers to obtain private health insurance at an affordable price.

36. Develop capacity of the local network of organizations to advocate for youth policies that reduces the loss of immigrants and their integration policies that improve the health of residents.