Funding for after school policies: Funding to expand programs to eliminate the backlog of job training programs, federal research to support policy, funding for policy, capacities and community services. Lodging to Orrick, Wangner, Litske (2010), American Community Survey, LB police community liaison, LB City Attorney, Superior Court, Best Practice, case law, Multi-cultural youth and community relations, adults, youth, child abuse, parent-teacher, student-teacher, child safety, and self-defense.

Leadership: Clear, cohesive vision, credibility.

Ability to build on existing organizations.

Community development and well-being, leadership, quality of life, and community members.

Funding for after school programs: Funding to support policy development and community organizing, public relations in the community.

Research and evaluation skills: Research on best practices and strategies for multi-agency collaboration on domestic violence (DV) and child abuse, policies for early intervention in DV and child abuse cases, best practices for responding to, investigating and prosecuting DV, child abuse, and other family violence, attorneys to assist with drafting local gang injunction and racial profiling.

Children and Families core services.

Violence in the Home and Community: Youth violence prevention policies, communities of color and prevention efforts.

1: Strengthen innovative cross-system partnerships to support youth violence prevention & healthy development.

2: Support local organizations to advocate for policies to improve youth violence prevention and intervention for DV & child abuse training, response, investigation & prosecution.

3: Develop partnerships among youth violence prevention programs, businesses, and schools to reduce youth in jobs or internships.

4: Advocate for funding to develop job training, life skills and work readiness skills.

5: Develop partnerships among youth violence prevention programs, businesses, and schools to reduce youth in jobs or internships.

6: Advocate for funding to develop job training, life skills and work readiness skills.

7: Strengthen innovative cross-system partnerships to support youth violence prevention & healthy development.

8: LB Transit works with various organizations to ensure that safety and mobility are integrated at all levels.

Increased quality of life by decreasing pollution sources.

Increased supply of affordable housing and increased conditions of safe and affordable housing in LB.

Increased quality of life by decreasing pollution sources.

Increased safety and in homes and community.

Increased capacity of youth to be leaders and advocates.

Youth development and violence prevention is a priority in city policies, budgets and practices.

Increased youth employment skills to participate in LB workforce.

LB becomes leader in responsible & balanced, sustainable development that is driven by the community, its neighborhoods.

High employment opportunities through training and career ladder in high-paying, high-growth industries, esp. targeting low-income, young & disabled individuals.

LB adopts a living wage policy viaLB will host community youth leader meetings for research, dialogue, and training.

1: Advocate & obtain the creation of a living wage policy in LB.

2: Advocate for funding for community organizing and policy advocacy.

Immigration reform is linked to economic development and the well-being of youth, health, and community members.