

Sisters Quilting Collective Presents:
“Our Stories in Quilts” - SQC’s 3rd Annual Quilt Exhibit
February 1st through February 15th 2014
The Brickhouse Art Gallery, 2837 36th Street, Sacramento, CA 95817

In celebration of Black History Month, Sisters Quilting Collective (SQC) will host its 3rd annual Quilt Exhibit entitled “Our Stories in Quilts: Quilts That Are Inspired by the Stories in Our Lives,” February 1st through February 15th 2014 at The Brickhouse Art Gallery, 2837 36th Street, Sacramento CA. 95817. The exhibit will highlight African-American Quilters and their Quilts.

Join us for Community Day: A Free Family-Friendly Event

Saturday, February 8, 2014

Community Day

Donations accepted (Free to all)

Children and Parent’s Quilting Corner - 12:30pm-3:30pm

Children, parents and community members will have fun engaging in hands-on quilting activities. Bring the kids and the young at heart for a day of quilting fun and celebration!!! Bring your family to this free event and learn how to make your very own 4 pattern quilt (all materials are provided).

Saturday, February 8, 2014

SQC’s Doll and Fabric Art Showcase Event 4:00pm-6:00pm

SQC’s members will showcase their beautiful fabric art, dolls and clothing

Donations accepted (Free to all)

Raffle Tickets! Raffle tickets will be for sale. We encourage you to make a donation by purchasing raffle tickets, 1 for $1 or 6 for $5.

The Brickhouse Art Gallery, 2837 36th Street, Sacramento, CA 95817

For more info call: (916) 396-4672 or (916) 475-1240