

We are pleased to inform you that a new website for the Steps to College 2013 University Fair has been set up and is available at the following address:

<http://stepstocollege2013.org/>

In this site you will be able to register for this once-a-year higher education event, learn about scholarship opportunities for Latino high school and university students, review the program of the Fair to find out the workshops that better fit your interests, and discover the opportunities available for you to volunteer your time to help young Latino students achieve their dreams.

Steps to College has been designed to provide a one-stop educational exhibit for Latino high school students in Northern California seeking to earn a college degree. It features information and on-site guidance as well as financial assistance opportunities, all in a bilingual setting for members of the whole family.

STEPS TO COLLEGE
PASOS A LA UNIVERSIDAD 2013

The event is organized by the following partners: The Consulate General of Mexico in Sacramento; the California Student Aid Commission; the Cien Amigos civic group; the Mexican Cultural Center of Northern California; the Latino Policy Coalition; Sacramento State University; University of California, Davis; The College Board; Dream Develop Do; and the Hispanic Association of Colleges and Universities.

This year's university fair is expected to attract 2,500 students from all throughout Northern California. Representatives from dozens of California colleges and universities will be providing information about their admission process.

The objectives of Steps to College 2013 are:

- To explain the full array of resources available for Latino students to finance their higher education,

- To expose Latino families to the admissions process on Northern California higher education institutions,
- To assist Latino students in completing their student aid applications.

Steps to College 2013 will be presented in both Spanish and English, from 8:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. at the Consulate General of Mexico in Sacramento, located at 2093 Arena Boulevard.

There will be free student workshops, which will include topics such as Immigration (Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals), Financial Aid, College and University Admissions, and Consular Affairs. Students will learn more about available scholarships and the Cal Grant program.

If you and your family want to take advantage of these free bilingual services, please register today at <http://stepstocollege2013.org>.

Register to volunteer by clicking on this link: <http://www.stepstocollege2013.org/contact/volunteer>