

Education for Success $1,000 Scholarship 2013 APPLICATION FORM INSTRUCTIONS

Application Deadline is July 31, 2013

Award Announcement is August, 2013

Background

The Sacramento County Juvenile Justice Commission (JJC) has set an annual goal of awarding scholarships in increments of $1000 to youth who:

- Demonstrate a willingness to work towards improving themselves.
- Document in writing a positive educational plan for their future.
- Completion of GED or have a received high school diploma during the 2012-2013 school year
- Have need for some degree of financial assistance.

Initiated in 2006, the Juvenile Justice Commissioners voted to take advantage of a Sacramento County Superior Court policy that pays Commissioners $25 per meeting for their voluntarily participating in JJC monthly meetings. It was agreed that all funds paid to the Commissioners would be donated to JJC to support the Education for Success Scholarship Program. The Juvenile Services Council also has generously donated to this scholarship program.

Scholarship Application Process

Minimum requirements to qualify for the JJC Scholarship are that the youth must:

- Be a current resident of Sacramento County
- Be currently or previously involved in the County's juvenile justice system and/or on probation with the Sacramento County Probation Department
- Be under the age of 22 at the time of application submission.
- Submit copy of paperwork substantiating receipt of GED or high school diploma –required
- Applicants expecting to earn a high school diploma/GED by July 30, 2013 may submit a letter from their school indicating the date they expect to receive their diploma/GED
- Submit paperwork documenting pursuit of further educational opportunities such as career technical education, specialized career training, or college
- Submit a letter of recommendation from a support person such as a teacher, school counselor, probation officer or social worker
- Complete the application (see pages 2 & 3 below) – It must include:
 - 1) The applicant's signature
 - 2) A brief essay stating how the applicant could benefit from the scholarship including how the scholarship funds are to be used
 - 3) Copy of high school diploma/GED
 - 3) A signed Public Use of Name Agreement

Applicant should review and complete all three pages of this application form, & submit the completed form, required letter, & documentation no later than the above noted application date deadline.

Scholarship Award and Follow-up Process

Applications will be reviewed by the JJC's Education Committee. The Education Committee will make recommendations to the full JJC and scholarships will be awarded with the majority approval of the JJC. When the Scholarship Awards are announced, the recipient or the recipient's designated representative must be present for the award announcement presentation. Distribution of funds will be completed upon submission by the youth of proof of acceptance and/or enrollment in college, technical school or specialized career training as outlined in the application for scholarship. In addition, distribution of funds will be made in two installments. One installment will be given at a Sacramento County Board of Supervisor's meeting. After receipt of the award, the youth may be asked to make a brief statement about this experience to the JJC. No more than one scholarship from the JJC Program will be awarded to an individual.
